

DAILY NATIONAL WHIG. SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST 21, 1847. For President, ZACHARY TAYLOR, OF LOUISIANA. Subject to the decision of the Whig National Convention.

TELEGRAPHIC. Three days later from Vera Cruz. DEATH OF DR. HAWKINS. NOTHING OFFICIAL FROM GEN. SCOTT. RUMORS OF PEACE. GENERAL PIERCE AT JALAPA 26th July. Out of Provisions

Richmond, August 21. 45 min. past 7 o'clock, a. m. The New Orleans mail of the 14th inst. is just in. The steamer Orleans arrived at that city on that day with dates from Vera Cruz to the 7th inst.

There was no official intelligence from Gen. Scott up to that date. The city of Vera Cruz was full of rumors, as usual, from Scott's column. One was, that commissioners to treat for peace had been appointed; but no reliance was placed upon it.

Intelligence had been received that General Pierce reached Jalapa on the 26th of July with his column, and that they were out of provisions.

Dr. Hawkins, of Baltimore, died at Tampico of the yellow fever, on the 6th inst.

We invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement of G. W. Wheeler, in another part of our paper. Mr. Wheeler is one of our most skillful Mechanics, and those who are in want of good furniture would do well to give him a call.

ALABAMA.—Our hopes for Davis were as the dew-drops on the leaf. The sun rose, and they were not. Chapman beats Davis by a majority of 6,909; a falling off from the Poll vote of near 6,000, but quite enough to make Chapman Governor! The Democrats have 29 majority on joint ballot, to leave Mr. Bagby at home and to send Mr. King to his old seat again; which will surely be the case, unless Mr. Bagby will beg very hard indeed!

FROM TEXAS.—We have Texas intelligence up to the 6th inst. The cotton crops were magnificent, and the picking at the rate of 200 pounds to the hand, was going on rapidly from Caney to Egypt. Get the last map of the Lone Star, and you'll find these places. No other item worth transcribing.

AFRICA AND DEATH.—On the 12th inst., in New Orleans, Major Owan Byrd attacked a Mr. Edwards, in the street, with a cane. A regular affray ensued, in which Byrd was killed by sundry pistol balls being shot into him by the hand of Edwards. He taketh the sword, &c.

The Nashville Orthopolitan of the 13th inst., in an able article upon the subject of the Presidency, comes to the conclusion that General Taylor will be our next President, come what may. We have yet to hear the first opinion to the contrary.

On the 18th inst., while at Cape May, Mr. Clay came near being killed. He had ridden out in a four-horse coach, and on his return, the horses became restive and ran the carriage against a fence. At this juncture he caught the young lady who was with him in his arms, and leaped out of the carriage unhurt. The next moment he might have been dashed to pieces.

The yellow fever is scourging New Orleans. On the 12th, forty deaths from it were recorded. It spares no age or sex, and is more fatal even than the fever of 1837.

General Taylor's Clinton letter has set the Democrats of New Orleans in a perfect fury of rage. They construe it to mean that he is a hot Whig; and the New Orleans Courier says that it would rather go for a disunionist than the old Hero, if he be a Whig. Jupiter! how it nicks 'em!

A correspondent inquires why we published the story of Peter Pool? We printed it as a bit of curious intelligence, believing there was nothing so very improbable in an old negro slave, whose slavery was only in name, preferring to go back to his old stamping ground, to remaining where he had no sympathies.

A Pennsylvania Captain, who had been discharged by General Scott for inability occasioned by sickness, recently applied to the President to be reinstated. The Secretary of War wrote to him that our commanding General in the field has the right to discharge volunteer officers for sickness-sake, but that they cannot be put back again.

The Charleston Courier says, very truly, that the only mode of benefiting the negro race is, to colonize Africa with our negroes.

New cotton was received at New Orleans on the 12th inst.

A desperate fellow by the name of Ernest, killed a companion, in cold blood, on last Sunday, in Cincinnati.

Mr. Bruce of Virginia, is out in an address upon negro slavery, and he recommends that the State shall rid itself of the institution as fast as possible, by removing the slaves to the South in whole families.

Berkeley Springs.—The visitors at this watering place, have recently had a fancy ball, at which Baltimore beauty dazzled the eyes. One gentleman personated Jack Downing, but was frequently mistaken for Gen. Pillow, whereat he got very angry! The occasion is said to have been a very gay and pleasant one.

The Whigs of Carroll County, Md., have nominated Gen. Taylor for the Presidency, because they consider him a second Washington. A noble and just compliment to the old Hero!

QUERY.—Why is it that Mr. Walker does not draw those $40,000 from the Middlestown Bank in Pennsylvania? Can any one tell us? There is a tail to this tale.

Foreign Intelligence.

ITALY.—According to accounts which seem trustworthy, Rome has been spared a revival of the Sicilian Vespers. For some days there were rumors of a conspiracy to restore the old system by a coup de main. So absurd, however, did the whole affair seem, that the rumors which first reached London through the French papers were not credited; but the receipt of direct news leaves no room for doubt that some outrage was contemplated. On the 17th instant there was to be a grand fire in commemoration of the amnesty, and a display of fireworks in the Piazza de Popolo. Persons were to be distributed among the crowd, with instructions to get up a quarrel, as a justification for military interference; disaffected portions of the regiments being then employed to make a general onslaught. The fugitives were to be waylaid in the back streets, and killed, by accomplices armed with stilettos. The presence for the attack was to be ill treatment of the soldiers by the populace; and the sanguinary result was to be held up as the natural consequence of concessions to a people not ripe for freedom. In this way the tumult was expected to produce the desired reaction in the proceedings of Government.

This notable scheme got wind in the club of the Circolo Romano. Prince Salviati, at the head of a deputation from the club, communicated the matter to the Pope, who took immediate measures for the public safety. The citizens were armed, and orders were given to arrest the ringleaders. In the midst of the bustle, on the 16th, Cardinal Ferretti opportunely arrived to assume the office of Secretary of State. His first official act was to banish Monsignor Grassellini, the Governor of Rome; who was allowed only twenty-four hours to quit the city. The conspiracy is fathered upon the party headed by Cardinal Lambruschini; and on its discovery the following placard was posted about, giving a list of the actors:

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC. "Public entertainment, contrived by his Eminence Lambruschini, and Col. Nardoni, left to be executed in the form of a popular tragedy, by the following performers.

Infamous Dram. Pers. Colonel Fredri. Captain Antonio Mozzarelli. Lieutenant Ginnuzzi. Lieutenant San Giorgi. Lieutenant Bonvenuti. Minardi the spy. Vincenzo Morini, called Tutto Bozzi. Antonio Bartoli. Three sons of Galanti the spy. Pontoni the horse jockey. Fioravanti called Patacchia."

Colonel Fredri has escaped, but Captain Mozzarelli, Lieutenant San Giorgi, and Signor Bartoli, have been arrested. Fredri was colonel of carabinieri, a body of 3,000 mounted police; upon whom the people looked with distrust. The carabinieri as a body have indignantly disclaimed any participation in the conspiracy, and they have put forth an address to the Roman people, laying the blame on a few wretches belonging to the corps.

Occurrences at Ferrara, on the 17th instant, would seem to confirm the belief that the Austrian Government had some participation in the Roman conspiracy. On that day, two Austrian battalions, of 800 men each, followed by four pieces of artillery with lighted matches, entered the city. They marched with loaded muskets and fixed bayonets, wearing green boughs in their caps. Their object seemed to be to provoke disorder by insulting demonstrations. They continued in military occupation of the place.

It was believed that Cardinal Gizzi would retain the Ministry of Foreign Affairs; Cardinal Ferretti becoming Minister of the Interior. Prince Rospiolosi is made commander-in-chief of the National Guard of Rome. Prince Orsini is confirmed as Senator.

TURKEY.—Constantinople, July 17.—The campaign in Kurdistan has at last been opened in the most glorious style. An extraordinary express arrived at the Porte on the 16th, with the important intelligence of a complete victory having been gained at Cergul over the insurgents, in which more than 1200 Kurds were left on the field of battle.

The details are to the effect that Emmer Pacha, commanding the right wing of the Turkish corps d'armee, preceded the main body, and on the 15th of June entered the Hakary mountains. At first he met with great opposition from the insurgents, and this caused him to move in a very cautious manner. On the 17th, two hours before midnight, the Turks were attacked, and fought with great valor, much to their disadvantage, till the dawn of day, when rushing forward, they attacked the enemy most vigorously and quickly put them to flight, with a loss of 1200. The loss of the Turks is variously estimated at from 500 to 800 killed and wounded.

Emmer Pacha on the 14th, after a forced march, arrived before Dagherdin, the stronghold of Bedr Khan Bey, and, agreeably to instructions from the Porte, twice summoned the Kurds to surrender, on a promise of mercy; but the latter determined to fight to no terms, and to try the weight of their own wild valor against the discipline of the Turks. After a fight of 12 hours, in which prodigies of heroism were displayed, the stronghold of Bedr Khan Bey, and, agreeably to instructions from the Porte, twice summoned the Kurds to surrender, on a promise of mercy; but the latter determined to fight to no terms, and to try the weight of their own wild valor against the discipline of the Turks.

On the other hand it appears that the main body of the Turkish army, under the command of Osman Pacha, had entered the Hakary mountains at Kalbandire, with 12,000 men and 19 pieces of light artillery, and that on the 14th of June, while crossing the Beubutan, he met a strong body of Kurds, led by Khan Mahmoud of Yan; an engagement followed, and the enemy was dispersed, leaving 400 on the field of battle; they themselves fled, and had joined Bedr Khan Bey at Evrak.

On the 14th instant our troops of the Sixth Illinois Regiment, were passing St. Louis on their way to the war.

They say, that Mr. Secretary Marcy gave Mitchell, the soldier who lost his arms in fighting the Mexicans, fifty whole cents—the very identical sum which he charged the State of New York for mending his nether garment on a certain occasion!

Good.—A candidate for the Tennessee Legislature in Hawkins county, advocated the revival of that odious writ the ca. sa. and he was ignominiously defeated. The fellow was behind the age.

Col. Baker, late of the first Illinois regiment is in New York.

THE CLERK AFFAIR AGAIN.

GEORGETOWN, D. C., August 20. Mr. Editor: I see by your valuable paper that it with many others are paying particular attention to our worthy clerk, Mr. French, esq. I am somewhat surprised to see your papers speak of that gentleman as a Democrat. I profess to be a Democrat, and I never did consider Mr. French a Democrat only for self interest. He is true to the party in power. Whig with Whig party, and Democrat in Democratic party. A true Yankee, with all the impatience which belongs to that class. Mr. French began to see how the cat will hop, and already begins to prepare himself as a true Whig. He says in his letter that he has always been silent on politics. Did he not say in his speech on Capitol Hill at the raising of the Democratic pole—"That though he made few speeches his pen was vigilantly used in support of the party?" Mr. French is a Democrat with Whig principles—a self interest man, who keeps in his employment four of the same family, with a combined salary of about $7000 per annum.

DEMOCRAT. QUERY? Did not Mr. French circulate coffin handbills against Jackson.—Eo.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 20, 7 P. M. LATER FROM SANTA FE.—By the St. Louis papers, just received, we have later news from Santa. The reported attack on Col. Eaton's force, by the Camanches, is fully confirmed.

The report heretofore current, that Fort Mann, on the Arkansas, had been destroyed by the Indians, is contradicted, but it is to be abandoned for want of a sufficient force to keep it in a good state of defence.

Large forces of Indians, well mounted, infest the roads, with evident hostile intentions. Some of the American soldiers had been of late very disorderly, and it was found difficult to keep them in a state of subordination.

ETYMAN ALLEN.—The capital anecdote related by Hon. John P. Bigelow, at the entertainment given on board the Hibernia to Mr. Secretary Walker, in regard to Ethan Allen, reminds us of another. While he was in England, the English ministry tried various means to shake his stern republican principles, and win him, if possible, over to the side of the Mother Country. At length, Lord North, we believe it was, offered him, as a bribe, one half of New Hampshire. Ethan listened attentively, and replied, that the offer reminded him strongly of an ancient scene of temptation, where a less important personage tempted a more important personage, by offering him the world, and all its possessions; if he would but fall down and worship him. "And," added Ethan, fixing his keen eye on Lord North, "would you believe it, the d—dascal didn't own a square foot of the territory."

MEXICAN DOCUMENTS.—The New Orleans Picayune of the 13th inst. continues the publication of sundry important Mexican documents, among which is a circular of the Minister of Foreign Affairs, Pacheco, in the early part of July. This circular proclaims war to the knife, until "a glorious peace is conquered." The next document is a letter from Lord Palmerston to the Mexican Minister in London, informing him that the British Minister in Mexico will follow the Mexican Government, go where it will; which Pacheco interprets to mean, that the British Government will not recognize any revolutionary or other government set up by the power of our arms! The whole are interesting, as conveying a true idea of Mexican feeling.

THE ORPHAN GIRL.—Some three years ago an English lady died in New Orleans, and left an only daughter, which was taken care of by the Ursulines. Last week a rich, kind-hearted bachelor, by the name of Lamine, took a fancy to the parentless child, now four years old, preferred before the proper tribunal a claim as curator and tutor of the infant; and after due examination, his claim was allowed. The orphan girl has found a father and a mother in the person of Mr. Lamine. May the blessings of Heaven attend his every step!

THE RICHMOND ENQUIRER thinks Gen. Taylor is now out of the question for the Presidency, that he is no Whig, &c., but the Richmond Whig comforts his neighbor as follows:

"We believe they speak from the bottom of their hearts, when they express the fervent hope that 'no one will hereafter call him a Whig.' And we are sorry to disappoint such a heartfelt aspiration. But we are compelled to do so notwithstanding for while we see a thing in that letter to shake our faith, more than there is in any of the others already published, we know from private sources, which it is impossible to doubt, that he is a Whig, and a very thorough one. He has certainly said nothing to the contrary, thus far, in any correspondence which we have seen."

Cause of Thankfulness.—A minister was once speaking to a brother clergyman, of his gratitude for a merciful deliverance he had just experienced: "As I was riding here to-day," said he, "my horse stumbled and came very near throwing me from a bridge, where the fall would have killed me, but I escaped unhurt."

"I can tell you something more than that," said the other. "As I rode here to-day, my horse did not stumble at all!"

We are too apt to forget common mercies.

PATTERN MESSAGE. OF A GOVERNOR OF SOUTH CAROLINA. October, 13th 1822.

"Mr. Speaker, I do not remember to have seen in all ye acts proposed any act or clause of an act to hinder the shipping any Indians out of this province, I desire you will take care of it, that I there be no particular act for it, that a clause may be added at ye end of ye act for Entries & clearings of ships."

I also desire that a day & committee may be appointed to meet me & the council to consider of the method for drawing up the form of Government and laws of Grants for land.

PHILL: DUDWELL." He (Gen. Taylor) tells them (the Democratic politicians) openly that he will have nothing to do with them, and yet like curs that have been spurned, they return to lick his feet.

[F. J. GAULD.] No better judge in the world of the canine nature of his brother Democratic politicians, than Mr. Grund. He has kennelled so long with them that he knows their very thoughts.

Sheffield Sheffield, one of the old Revolutionary spirits is no more. He was a Hebrew and lived in Savannah. The leaves are falling fast.

CAPITOL GROUNDS.—Yesterday evening being very pleasant, a great number of ladies and gentlemen availed themselves of the opportunity, and walked up to visit and admire the beautiful gardens of the Capitol. The work for raising the great lantern and pole will soon be finished.

OUR "CANAL." (?)—While passing along the Canal near Maryland avenue, we heard a little girl (from Georgetown, and of course used to seeing a real canal,) ask what kind of a stream it is, over which is this elegant iron bridge? She might well ask what it is, when she sees a cow, grazing in its very centre. If our Corporation wish this place to retain the name of "canal," they had better set to work and have the islands removed from its midst.

CHANGE OF POSITION.—Messrs. Campbell & Coyle, dealers in hardware and cutlery, have recently purchased that commodious three story building near the corner of 6th street and Penn. avenue, formerly occupied by C. W. Boteler, Jr., and are fitting it up in superior style for the reception of their wares. W. B. Kibbey, esq., leather dealer, is to occupy the store room they leave.

THE LANTERN AGAIN.—We understand from Mr. Crutchett that the delay of sending up the great pole is occasioned by the continual high winds which prevent the process of gilding the lantern. The moment that work is done, the pole will be raised to its place. The great gas-holder is to be removed into the tank on Monday or Tuesday.

WATCH HOUSE.—Two arrests were made last night, viz: Samuel Ford, free colored, found disorderly in a grog shop; paid costs and gave security for good behaviour. Charles Marble, free colored, found drunk in the market house; committed to the work house for thirty days.

NEW COURT OF JUSTICE.—On Wednesday, a suit was brought by W. H. Gunnell against W. J. Brown, the second assistant postmaster general, for the recovery of a hundred and fifty dollars, for which he had become responsible, it was contended, for a friend, Mr. Lawrenson, a clerk in the post office department, and a magistrate, acted as the Squire Justice, and before him, in one of the rooms of the building, the parties appeared. Lawrence, counsel for Mr. Brown, and Wallace for Mr. Gunnell.

Judgment for Gunnell. ORPHAN'S COURT.—Yesterday, the case of the Heirs of Kosciuszko vs Hunford, adm. came up for a hearing. The notice to appear having never been served upon the defendant, a new summons was asked for and granted. The case for the defendant to show cause why the funds of the Kosciuszko estate shall not be distributed among the heirs. Tuchman for Complainant, and Cox, Smith and Marbury for defendant. The case will come up again the 5th of October.
